THE FOOTBALL COACHES

Charles "Trusty" Tallman

Earle "Greasy" Neale

When the football season of 1934 starts the students of W. V. U. will see a team coached by a man new as a varsity coach but well known as the coach of their excellent freshman football teams of the past few years. Charles "Trusty" Tallman will then have his grip on the reins that will guide the fate of our Varsity Footballers. The student body is strongly hopeful that "Trusty" will bring their team way out in front in 1934. Their hope is strong because they have watched his freshman teams perform and they know that those teams were well coached. Tallman seems to have the ability to inspire his teams to fight to the last ditch. His teams are never beaten until the game is over.

Coach Tallman is not only a coach. He is widely known throughout the state as a legislator and as an agriculturist. As a legislator he is known and liked for the progressive bills that he sponsored and worked for.

Along with the Student body and "Trusty's" many friends and followers, the Monticola 1934 wishes him luck and success.

THE MOUNTAI

SEASON REVUE

The Mountaineer varsity opened its season September 23 against a powerful Duquesne machine, losing their first opening tilt since 1928. The score, 3-0 is a true indication of the way the game went. Both teams lacking the necessary punch to score when the opportunity presented itself. The deadlock was broken, and incidentally the game won, by a beautiful placement for a field goal by that well remembered "Duquesne educated" toe.

After the disappointment of the opening game had paved the way we were better prepared to meet the crushing defeat that the Pittsburgh Panthers great "steam roller" team handed out to our Varsity the following week at our first home game on October first. The Pennsylvania boys were just too powerful, as you can see by the score above.

On October 7 the Varsity broke into the right side of the ledger; scoring 13 points against the Temple Owls. Although the Owls scored one point more than W. V. U., the close score caused many an encouraged expression to break forth on the countenances of the student body. The passing of Parriott and Scott featured the efforts of West Virginia representatives in Philadelphia.

NEER VARSITY FOR 1932

On Saturday afternoon, October 15, the Mountaineer football fans were treated to the sight of a Varsity team of theirs on a "spree". Although expected to win, the W. V. U. football team was not expected to go on a wild rampage and outplay the Wesleyan Bob Cats in every department of the game. The score had little to do with the real situation. After this exhibition even the pessimists looked a little hopeful.

The night air and a powerful Detroit eleven stopped, or rather held up, the Mountaineer string of victories, when on Friday night, October 21, they whitewashed our team to the tune of 21 to 0. Detroit unleashed a vicious passing attack that was the undoing of the Mountaineer footballers and led to the scoring of all Detroit's points.

The student body and all W. V. U. adherents were startled out of their apathy when the word was flashed over the wires that the West Virginia football team had unexpectedly turned the tables on the Golden Avalanche and handed them a bitter pill in the form of a 34 to 7 drubbing. "Eck" Allen ran wild back of an excellent forward wall and scored the majority of West Virginia's points.

The Nealemen, perhaps inspired by their great performance of a week ago, returned to the Mountaineer Stadium to mete out a stirring 19 to 0 defeat to the Georgetown Hoya's. The great defensive work of the W. V. U. line featured the play on this day.

The following Saturday the team journeyed to Charleston and gave Washington and Lee the same treatment they had handed the Hoyas the previous Saturday. The score W. V. U. 19—W. & L. 0. The backfield of W. V. U.'s team, however, showed much more pep than in the previous game.

Returning to the campus the Varsity proceded to trim Davis & Elkins' reputedly strong team to the tune of 25 to 12. Headed by the great field generalship of "Eck" Allen the Nealemen were able to gain an early advantage and hold it throughout the game.

On November 26 the hopes for a season better than 50% were blasted when W. & J. for the third consecutive time defeated W. V. U. The West Virginians seemed to have acquired a "complex" suddenly, and let scoring opportunities slip by seemingly unnoticed, while the W. & J. men kept on their toes and watched for the breaks; thereby ending W. V. U's. 1932 football season at 5 wins and 5 losses.

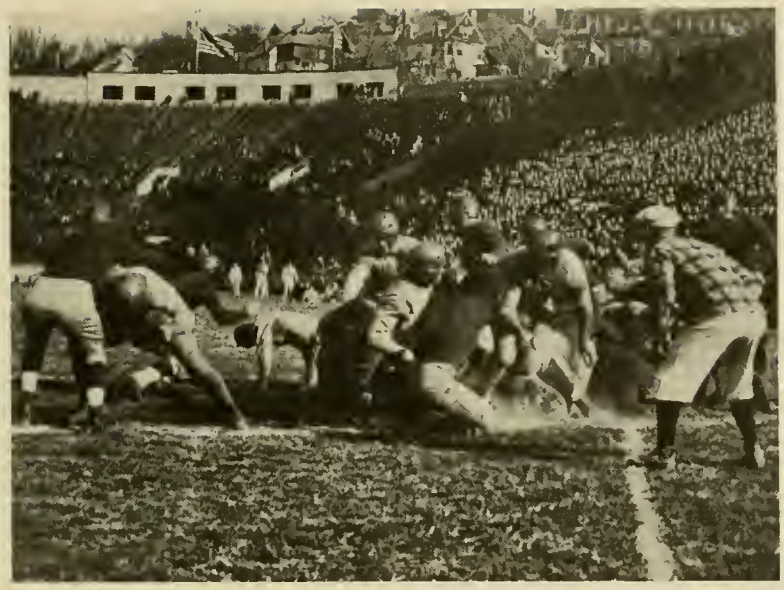
The season was characterized by West Virginia's lack of ability to capitalize on their scoring chances, and by many "breaks" that were not the fault of the team but the result of chance. All the games were fast and full of football whether we won or not. Pitt, Fordham, and Wisconsin were just too tough for our small squad to tackle, and the breaks of the game kept us from whipping Marquette and Temple. We should have beaten W. & L., and D. & E., but the lack of scoring punch when the breaks were with us caused the tie games. With the advent of a new coach and new material we are all hoping for a better season in 1934.

TOUCHDOWN



FOOTBALL 1933

SUMMARY

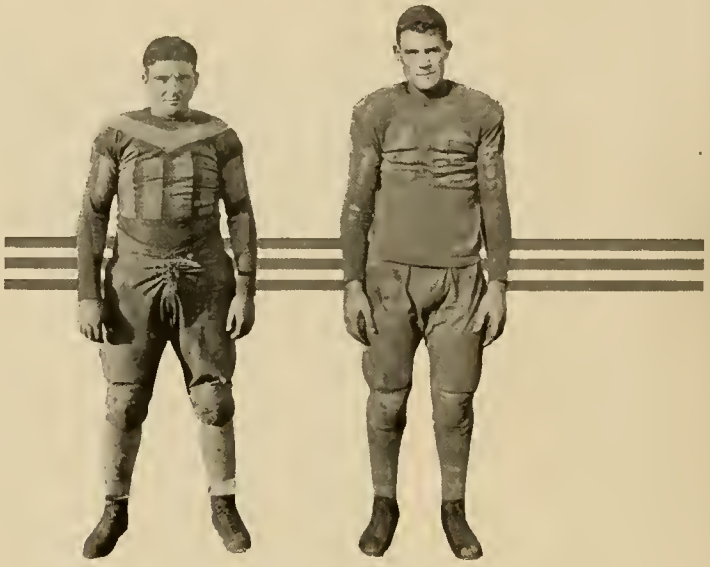
W. Va. vs. W. & L.

The varsity opened its season September 23 at Charleston. There they battled Washington and Lee to a nothing to nothing tie. West Virginia should, by all means, have won that game, but misplays and lack of scoring punch kept them from the coveted goal line. Three times they were in the shadow of W. & L.'s goal line only to throw away their scoring opportunities.

W. Va. vs. Duquesne

On September 29 the footballers journeyed to Pittsburgh, where they met Duquesne University at the Pitt Stadium. This game was one of the fastest that the varsity was engaged in during the season. During the opening minutes of the game W. Va. scored on a fast breaking play off tackle. By making the extra point we were able to keep out in front until the second half; for the Dukes scored in the second quarter but failed to convert for the extra point. In the second half Duquesne opened up; her forward wall making huge holes in our line, enabling their backs to practically walk through. When the final whistle blew the score stood: Duquesne 19, W. Va. 7.

THE VARSITY 1933



JOHN VARGO, Tackle

Vargo is a junior and has one more year on the varsity. Vargo plays a swell game at tackle and will prove to be an excellent man for "Trusty" to find a place for next fall.

JOE STYDAHAR, Tackle

Joe is the biggest man on the team, and those who play opposite him know him to be a man of great prowess. His play is consistently good, and he should be excellent material for future All American Teams.

TRAPPER ANDERSON, Guard

Anderson is a senior and has played his allotted three years on the varsity. His absence will be greatly noticed next year. Last year Trapper was mentioned on a New York Newspaper's All American Team.

GENE WRIGHT, Center

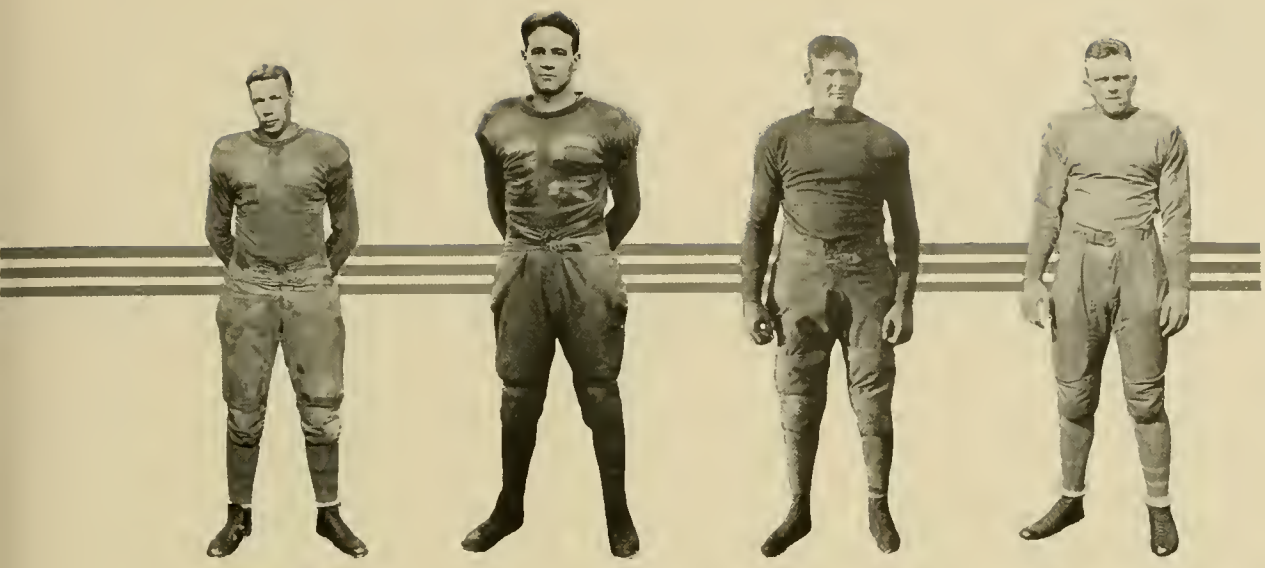
Gene is another senior who has played three years of excellent football for West Virginia. Gene is the type that is always in the thick of the battle doing his best.

LOU FIDLER, Guard

Lou is a junior with one more year of varsity football ahead of him. His play seems to improve steadily each year and his last one should be a big one.

TOD GOODWIN, End

Tod is one of the best natural football men that we have seen in action on the Mountaineer field. Watch the tackles that are made and you will find Goodwin in on most of them.



West Virginia vs. Pitt

On October 7 the University of Pittsburgh Panthers invaded the Mountaineer Stadium to administer a severe trouncing to an inferior but fighting Mountaineer team. The score: 21 to 0, does not indicate the true power that Pitt showed on that Saturday afternoon. Pitt seemed to be able to gain ground at will; and not through deceptive plays but by straight running plays through the line. In fact Pitt used only three different plays throughout the game. Twice the Mountaineers were in the shadow of Pitt's goal line but the necessary punch needed to place the ball over the goal line was lacking. Now that the game is over and the season a part of football history we merely hope for a better game next year.

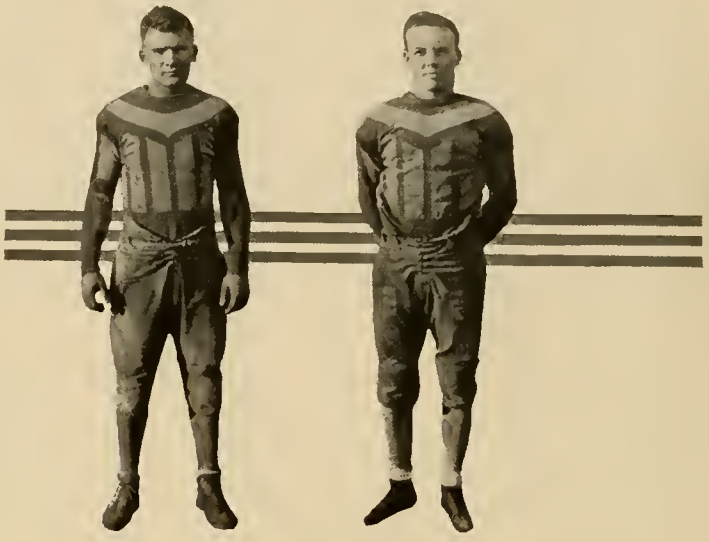
West Virginia vs. Fordham

After a lapse of one year our varsity again encountered the Fordham Rams in New York City. The team's journey to the big city was in vain however as the Rams, sporting one of the best teams in the east, trompled on the Mountaineer Boots to the tune of 20 to 0. The game was however, characterized by a fighting West Virginia offensive that surprised the spectators and upheld the Eastern sports writers opinion that a good battle will always be found wherever a West Virginia University team is in action. West Virginia outgained the Rams and garnered ten first downs to Fordham's 7. Here as in the Pitt game the score did not show how the game really progressed.

West Virginia vs. Temple

In their second night game of the season The Mountaineers met the Temple Owls on October 28. Pop Warner's lads barely managed to eke out a victory over the Mountaineers and they surely knew that they had been in a battle. When the smoke cleared away even the Temple adherents felt that W. Va. was on the wrong side of the 13 to 7 score. The scores were all made on passes, with the Warner bag of tricks fully opened and used up. With a few of the breaks W. Va. would have taken the Owls into camp and scored their first win of the season, but it must not have been on the books, especially the score books.

THE VARSITY 1933



HERB STEWART, Center

Another junior and incidentally one of the fightinest centers on any football team. He played in almost every minute of the games last fall and was always ready for more.

JAMES SCOTT, Quarterback

The smallest man on the squad but wiry and fast. The prettiest open field runner since Johnny Doyle galloped over the turf in the stadium.

ANGELO ONDER, End

A big man and one with football sense. He moved up from the freshman squad this year to fill the shoes of Bill Karr; and a very good job he did too.

ROMEO McDONALD, Tackle

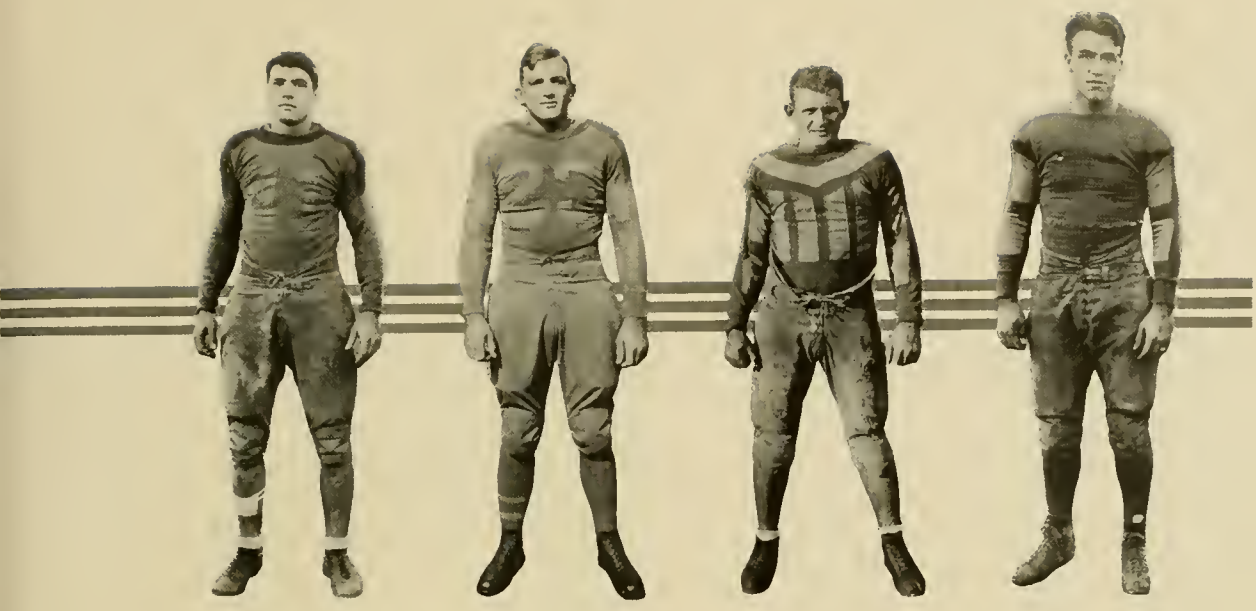
The second largest man on the squad and probably the hardest. A junior on the campus with one more year to be spent under the tutelage of a new coach.

ART SWISHER, Guard

Art is the mainstay of both the defense and offense. When a hole is needed in the line they call on Art and it will be there, even though the opposite line is often seemingly twice as big as "Swish".

BENNY THOMAS, Fullback

One of the hardest hitting backs that West Virginia has ever produced. If there is any sign of a weak place in the "enemy" line Thomas can get through.



West Virginia vs. Davis and Elkins

On October 28, in the Mountaineers' second home game of the season, Davis and Elkins was battled to a 7 to 7 deadlock. D. & E. came here with a very small squad and proceeded to unleash a variety of trick plays that set the W. V. U. varsity back on its ears for quite a sizeable portion of the game. However, after we found out what it was all about D. & E. found it very hard to make any headway at all. And again the lack of scoring power when deep in enemy territory caused the lack of a winning score to appear on our books to date.

West Virginia vs. Marquette

The Golden Avalanche descended upon Morgantown Saturday, November 4, to get revenge for a defeat suffered at the hands of the Mountaineer footballers the previous season; but as later events showed they were to be sadly disappointed. The final score being 13 to 13. This was another game that W. Va. should have put down as the first victory of the season, but again it was not in the cards. The game was mostly an aerial affair, both teams scoring or getting into scoring position by virtue of forward passes. "Eck" Allen again proved the nemesis of Marquette by pounding the line for consistent gains and also unleashing some very beautiful passes.

West Virginia vs. Wisconsin

The Mountaineers again invaded enemy territory and were again repulsed by aforesaid enemy. At the University of Wisconsin a Spears coached eleven defeated the Mountaineers by a score of 25 to 6. The westerners were just too much for us. The first half it looked like W. Va. had a very good chance to win but in the second half Wisconsin applied the pressure and showed real stuff; in fact, enough to push over 25 points.

THE VARSITY 1933

"ECK" ALLEN, Halfback

The field general. For the past two football seasons Allen has been the outstanding star of the Varsity Football team. Always with a clear head and a keen insight into his opponents probable plans; he has proved to be a very effective leader on the gridiron.

TOM COVEY, Halfback

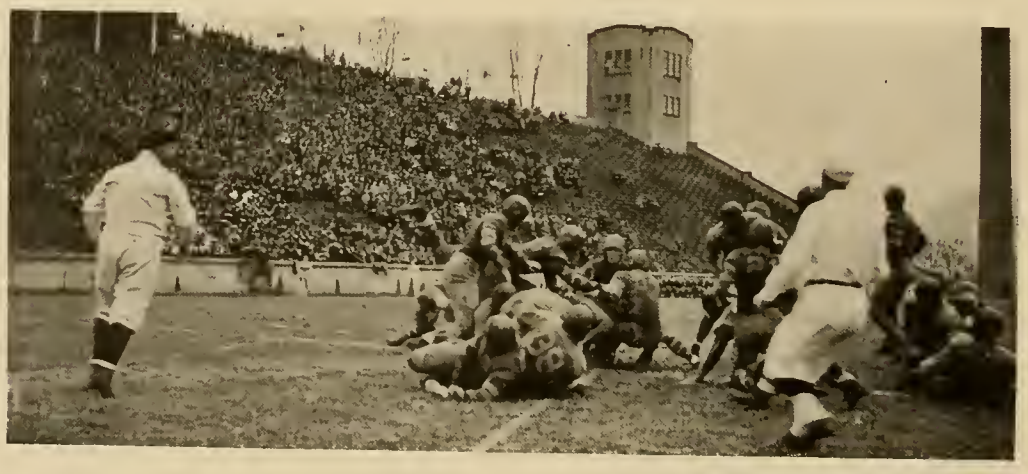
One of West Virginia's best blocking backs. He is the man who does the work and gets little publicity for it. His defensive work is another thing that makes him a very valuable man to have around when you need good football.

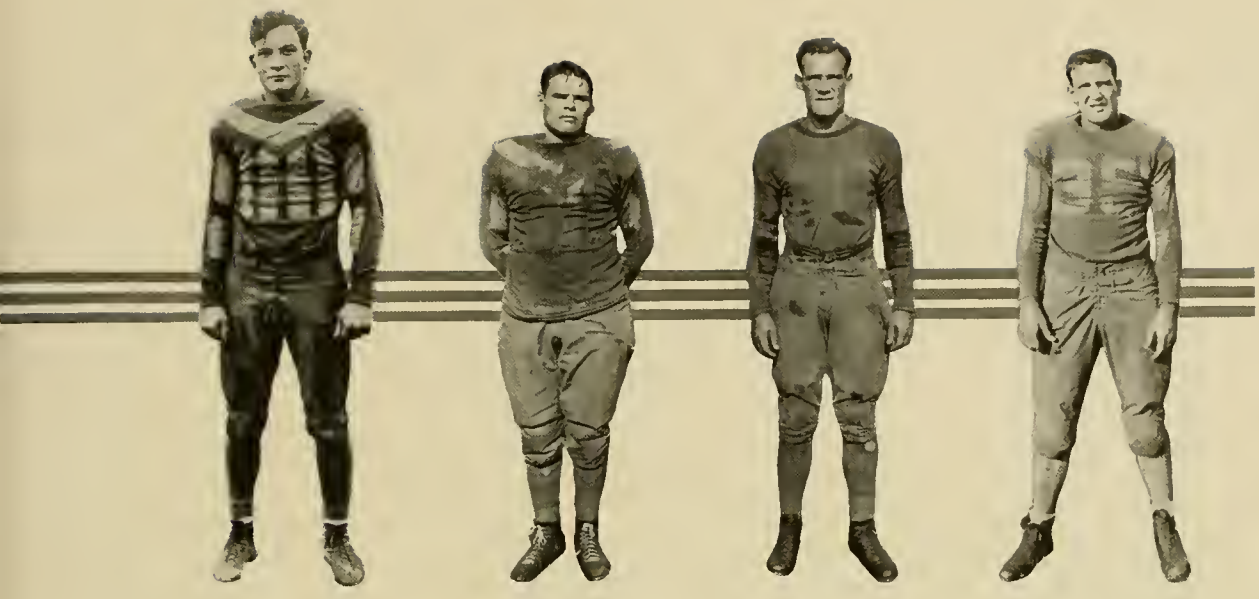
HOMER WHITE, Fullback

A virtual pile driver in the attack, Homer can always be called on when a couple of yards are needed for that first down. Homer is another of the many juniors on the squad and should be due for a very successful season after this summer.

SAM MAWHINNEY, Tackle

A sophomore from whom we will hear much when football is the subject of the campus "bull sessions". His weight combined with a flashing speed make him an ideal lineman. In the next two years we expect much of Mr. Mawhinney.





West Virginia vs. W. Va. Wesleyan

On a muddy Saturday afternoon West Virginia crossed over to the right side of the record sheet by swamping the Bobcats under a blanket of first-downs. W. Va. scored 24 first-downs to Wesleyans 3. The Mountaineers were clicking in every department, and the Bobcats were entirely unable to stop their drives. Wesleyan came here prepared to take a victory from a supposedly weak W. Va. U. football team, but they ran into a team that was good enough to tackle almost any team in the country on that particular day. Here as in several previous games the score 26 to 13 does not show the correct proportion of difference between the two teams.

West Virginia vs. Georgetown

On the following Saturday, November 25, the Mountaineers drew down another win. This time the victim was the Georgetown "Hoyas" from the national capitol. This game was hotly contested from start to finish. West Virginia winning out in the last few minutes of play. The W. Va. varsity was evidently encouraged by their victory of the previous Saturday for the same fighting spirit was shown throughout the game. The Hoyas were strong this year and were supposed to beat the Mountaineers but they came out on the short end of a 14 to 12 score.

West Virginia vs. Washington and Jefferson

In the final game of the season played on Thansgiving Day, West Virginia fans were treated to another W. Va. victory and also to the best football game that the Mountaineers took part in all season. The outcome was a toss-up from start until the final whistle. In this game history repeated itself. Exactly ten years ago to the day, a fighting W. & J. team downed the ball back of their own goal line to save a possible touchdown by W. Va., in this year's game the same thing occurred but it was a W. Va. safety that gave two points to W. & J. The fine defensive work of both teams is really shown by the low score of 7 to 2, with West Virginia on the long end for the first time in four years.

This game ended a season of five losses, three ties, and three wins, for Coach Neale's last season as head football coach.

Freshman football for the past two years at W. V. U. has been exceptionally good. Under the expert tutelage of Trusty Tallman the teams showed flash and skill. The plebes never waitd for their opponents to start something, they always were on the offensive. Until the middle of each season the teams they were pitted against were given the odds. But after they had beaten Potomac State decisively and almost taken Pitt into camp people began to sit up and take notice. The very successful seasons of the past two years show what a fighting Mountaineer team can really do.

THE 1933 SEASON

The 1933 basketball season saw the last of a Stadsvold-coached West Virginia University basketball team. The season was characterized by many close games; many of them heartbreaking defeats. Eight of the games were won by margins of seven points or less. The 1933 team did not show much of the characteristic West Virginia fighting spirit; they were seemingly suffering from an inferiority complex. The system they used seemed to be antiquated and inferior to the systems used by the Mountaineer's opponents. Where the opponents attack seemed to click under the new, and radically different, rules, the varsity seemed slowed up by those same rules. The Mountaineer attack was a slow breaking game where a fast breaking game was imperative. The games where this was more noticeable than in others were: the Pitt games, and the Temple and Duquesne games. These teams had a fast breaking attack that left West Virginia's team running around in circles most of the time looking for the ball. The season's results show this clearly. Nine wins and thirteen losses is very unusual for a West Virginia University Varsity team, and especially for its basketball team.

1934 SEASON'S HIGHLIGHTS

MARSHALL "SLEEPY" GLENN

West Virginia's first season of basketball under the coaching of Marshall "Little Sleepy" Glenn proved to be one of the best that we have enjoyed for quite a few years. The season opened with a 32 to 24 victory over W. Va. Wesleyan. In this game they showed remarkable speed and ball handling ability. The next game with the University of Maryland showed that the first game was not merely a flash in the pan. In a close decision they defeated the U. of Maryland 26 to 24. The next game with the Carnegie Tech boys proved disastrous. Our team was completely "off" and went down to defeat to the tune of 35 to 30. We should by all that was right have won that game. Georgetown as our next foe proved to be a hard nut to crack. The game went to two extra periods before we finally won out by the margin of 37 to 32. Pitt, our next opponent, proved too tough in both encounters; winning the first by a score of 42 to 21, and the second by the narrow, last second margin of 27 to 26. In our single encounter with W. & L. we easily defeated them by the wide margin of 41 to 27. The next game, the second meeting with W. Va. Wesleyan, we managed to eke out a 28 to 25 victory. Bucknell, our next opponent, proved to be our easiest games; we won the first by the largest score of the season, 61 to 13, and the second battle by the second largest score of the season, 57 to 18. Temple almost "took us over" at their band box; but we rallied in the final minutes and won out by a score of 25 to 22. In the second game with the Owls we had a little easier time of it; winning by a score of 38 to 27. W. & J. were fairly easy to handle in the first game; W. Va. winning by 44 to 19 score. In the second game, however, W. & J. surprised us by coming as close as three points of beating us in a 39 to 36 thriller. Then came the team that showed the only really superior brand of basketball, in comparison to W. Va. Duquesne decisively whipped W. Va. first to the tune of 51 to 20, and then 40 to 33. Resting after the first Duquesne scrap the team took time off to garner 45 points to Penn State's 18.

The season just passed was remarkable in that there was such a sudden change in style. From the slow breaking style of 1933 they jumped suddenly into the fast breaking game that Little Sleepy liked so well to play himself. The results of this sudden change are well shown by the fine results obtained. Beaten by only three teams and with 14 wins to stack up against 5 losses, that with a little luck would have been only 3. This is certainly a good way for a coach to start his career, now we all hope that he will be a consistent winner.

Won 6 meets; Lost 1

In the past few years boxing has become one of West Virginia University's favorite sports. Perhaps this is due to the humans' natural interest in the battles that they can witness in the ring and have no personal contact with, or maybe it is the fact that the Mountaineer Boxing teams have been such consistent winners. The past season was no exception as far as wins are concerned. The fighters won six meets and lost one; and the one that they lost drew down quite a lot of criticism on the heads of those who officiated; the general consensus of opinion being that the West Virginia boys deserved to win the match with Navy. The score that must stand however, is W. V. U. 3½, Navy 4½. Wisconsin in a post season match gave the Mountaineers their only other close match, a 4 to 3 affair. This match was reported as a draw, but the official count according to contracted matches was 4 to 3 in favor of W. V. U. The matches with Bucknell, Duquesne, and Pitt were all won by scores of 6 to 1, the one being due to the forfeit of our lacking weight. Temple, the other victim, did not even win a bout, a heavyweight in this match being found in the person of Joe Zaleski.

The Eastern Intercollegiate Boxing Team Crown again went to West Virginia as we placed a complete team in the final round of the tournament and came through with three finalist victors. Puglia winning the 115-pound class, Captain Neely the 135-pound division, and Johnny Gallo easily handling the 165-pound class .

Boxing is now the best attended Winter Sport and will probably remain so unless the basketball team becomes a champion team in a remarkably short time.

Baseball at West Virginia University seems to be suffering from the same lack of popular support that its football team has for the last couple of seasons. It seems that unless a coach can produce a team from a very small and inexperienced squad that will win the majority of its games the student body and other usual W. V. U. supporters will lose the greatest percentage of its proper interest and support. The baseball team as well as other W. V. U. teams and projects of general University good and advancement, need the wholehearted support of the student body and interested persons; and without such support winning teams will never be produced.

However, baseball at W. V. U. did very well in 1933 considering the lack of experienced material. Pitchers such as Shaffer and Baker and Walker may always be counted on to pitch an interesting game, and hitters like Mascioli, Baker, and Doyle give that Big League atmosphere to the collegiate baseball games. The record of six wins, nine losses and one tie, while not a champion team record, is not bad and if proper weather conditions had prevailed would have been considerably better.

The outlook for 1934 is not particularly bright because of the same lack of material, but after 1934 the team should show great improvement and will probably show the number of wins to be in quite some excess of the losses. Coach Rodgers may always be counted upon to spring a few upsets and win from such teams as they did last year (1933) when they defeated the Big Ten Champions.

INTRODUCTION

With the establishment of a Division of Physical Education for Men at West Virginia University in September of 1928 there was also brought into being, as a branch of this Division, a Department of Intramural Athletics. Under the guidance of Professor Harry L. Samuel as Director the Department has just completed its fifth year of existence.

Previous to this new departure competition in Basketball, Track, Baseball, and Horseshoes had been conducted on a straight elimination basis by the students, functioning through the Inter-

This past year the finals in the 70 yard dash and the 70 yard low hurdles were held over from the Interfraternity Indoor Track Meet and conducted as a feature of the Carnival.

While the Boxing Championships were being contested for, a Wrestling Meet was conducted between the Junior Varsity and the Freshmen, the Junior Varsity being returned the winners.

TELEGRAPHIC BOWLING

This past year a Telegraphic Bowling Match was scheduled between the champion fraternity team at West Virginia and the champion fraternity team at the University of Pittsburgh. Omega Delta of Pittsburgh and Sigma Nu of West Virginia were the winners at their respective schools. Omega Delta was the winner of the match and the recipient of a handsome trophy awarded by the Inter-Fraternity Council at Pittsburgh.

ADMINISTRATION

fraternity Council. This competition was closed to all fraternities outside the Council and consequently only a small proportion of the student body actually took part, and thus a vast majority of the students were given no opportunity for wholesome recreation.

Starting out in October, 1928, Speedball, a game new to West Virginians, was introduced. The game was received with unexpected enthusiasm on the part of the student body and from this time on the reception accorded the Intramural program was most gratifying.

During the first year twelve different sports were conducted in the program. These were Speedball, Tennis, Cross-Country Running, Wrestling, Basketball, Foul Throwing, Indoor Track, Bowling, Boxing, Playground Ball, Horseshoe Pitching, and Outdoor Track.

In the second year, Handball, Volley Ball, Indoor Relays, and Miniature Golf were added to the program, thus swelling the total sports offered to fifteen. Tennis, offered in the first year, had to be abandoned because of a total lack of courts on the campus.

Four new Tennis Courts have been provided on the Campus and it is hoped to restore Tennis as an activity this Fall.

In the third year there were fifteen different sports offered in the program. Fencing being introduced as a new activity and Miniature Golf being dropped because of lack of interest.

A total of 1,073 different students participated in the twelve types of sports offered the first year and there was a total of 2,642 entries in these sports.

In the second year there were 1,095 different students participating in the fifteen different sports offered, with a total of 3,224 entries actually competing.

In the third year there were 1,103 different students participating in the fifteen different sports offered with a total of 3,448 entries actually competing.

In the fourth year there were 1,090 different students participating in the fifteen different sports offered, with a total of 3,337 entries actually competing.

This past year saw 1,029 different students participating in the fourteen different sports offered with a total of 3,031 entries actually competing.

The program will be altered from year to year and those sports which prove undesirable for Intramural competition will be dropped and others will be added as popularity and facilities permit.

THE MOUNTAINEER

A. Hale Watkins was elected by the student body to the distinguished position of Mountaineer. This position carries with it the traditions of many years, and signifies the highest honor that the students may confer on one of their fellow students. Hale has been outstanding in practically every department of student activity. Last year he was nominated for president of the Student Council and was defeated by only a very few votes. He is President of Beta Theta Pi, L. H. C. P. of Fi Batar Cappar, Summit of Mountain, Chief Justice of Phi Alpha Delta, Captain of the Mountaineer Week Team, a member of Sphinx, La Tertulia, Chi Sigma Delta, Honor Court, Student Assistant to the Athletic Director.

This Monticola feels that the Mountaineer presented in its pages will be outstanding among all the Mountaineers of the past and the future.

Tau Beta Pi fraternity was founded at Lehigh University in 1885. It is the oldest and the most representative of the honorary engineering societies, and it is the only one at West Virginia University.

Its purpose is to mark in a fitting manner those who have conferred honor upon their Alma Mater by distinguished scholarship and exemplary character, or by their attainments as alumni.

Distinguished scolarship is not considered the sole criterion, although it is the primary requisite for admission.

Alpha Chapter of West Virginia was formed from the one local Theta Psi fraternity, and was installed in 1922.

THE MUDDY NEWS

WEST VIRGINIA UNIVERSITY

VOL. I | MORGANTOWN, W. VA., MAY 10, 1934 | NO. 1

R. O. T. C. INSPECTED

ROYAL ORDER OF TIN CANS PASSES MUSTARD

At an inspection held last week the local lads made a fine showing when surveyed by General Nuisance and his lemonade, Major Feetsore. After much preliminary work, which included a P-rade by the whole regiment, and tent tossing by a few experts in this line, the outfit retired to their respective homes for lunch. After a light repast of beans and hardtack, they reassembled, whereupon they succeeded in recapturing Beta Mountain from the faculty, who have ruled with a tyrant's hand for the last ten years.

FROSH CLASS HOLDS BANQUET

SOCIAL LIFE OF CLASS OF '37 STARTS OFF WITH A BANG

Having duly waited till the three other class banquets were successfully held, the Class of '37 decided it was time that they had a meal en masse, as they say.

Accordingly a committee, composed of football players and ex-gunmen, was appointed by the class president. This august group of men chose the time and place for the feed and then the whole class sat back in his place and waited for the opening date.

Reports have it that three attended.

COLLEGE DANCE BIG SUCCESS

SIX AND ONE-HALF COUPLES ATTEND SATURDAY NIGHT ORGY

Promptly at seven-thirty (U. S. Bureau of Standard Time) the orchestra struck the opening bar, and we may say that he did remarkably well, considering that at the time Mr. Volstead was among the chaperones.

Everything went along smoothly during the entire evening till refreshments were served. These consisted of beer and cheese sandwiches, and one girl started a fight because she had been promised a souvenir. She got it.

MANY COURSES CHANGED

FACULTY TAKES RADICAL STEP

After a long and stormy session, the austere faculty of Montani College decided to remove from all engineering curricula the course in Integral Calculus, substituting in its place a new and entirely different one called Nothing. This course will consist of sleeping on the bank in front of Woman's Hall when the grass is green; at other times the searchers after knowledge will retire to the fireplace of the new Men's Dormitories, arrangements having been made to have these lighted at the times when Calculus classes were formerly held.

THE RUBAIYAT OF A JUNIOR

We are a Junior,
Even of the Class of 1935
We are brimming over with College Spirit
We believe in Attending Convocation
(When it is the other classes
That Attend;)
We believed in paddling the frosh
When we were a sophomore.
(Now we are opposed to it,
It is a brutal custom;)
We believe in a good scrap
Between the lower classes
(When it doesn't cost us anything;)
We believe that the sophomore
Should do all in his power
To keep the freshman
In his place.
If he doesn't he is Yellow.
If he does, he is
A rowdy.
A year ago there was a fight
In our good old town.
It was a good fight—
We enjoyed it;
We forced the freshmen to it.
But—
Some property was destroyed;
That was rowdyism. . . .
The fight is long since over.
Everyone had his money's worth.
The frosh have paid up-partly—
Like men.
But we love our college so much
That we decline to pay up,
For that would make people think
That the great Class of 1935
Approved of such rowdyism.
We are a Junior
Brimming over with college spirit:
Hurrah for the old college
And—the almighty dollar—
Money talks,
So let the eagle scream

HOODOO U. SPOSE

"Emma what?"

"Emma Kootenuf," she replied.

"I'll say so. My name's Obadiah."

"Obadiah Adore-u," he answered.

Then the tall lad chimed in. "And, fair one, what do they call you?"

"My name's Jemima."

"Jemima Kissin-u. And yours?"

"Archa"

"Archa what?"

"Archa Gonna-kiss-me?"

"Fresh thing!"

"Let's go to the movies," Obadiah suggested.

The plan seemed to meet with the approval of all. They entered the theatre and were directed to seats.

"Cicero?" Jemima questioned

The usher turned. "Pardon me, madam; did you address me?"

"No," she retorted. "I said Cicero We-sit-in."

After the show was over, they left the theatre. When on the street again, Archa Turned to Jemima and asked, "Do you know Olga?"

"Olga who?" she bit.

"Olga Home-with-u-if-u-want-me-to."

He did.

The entered her home and went into the parlor. They sat on the sofa and then she turned the lights a little lower.

"Do you know Lena?" she sighed.

"No, Lena who?"

"Lena Little-closer, dear."

He did.

Various others, but it wouldn't do to say much, for the writer wants to graduate someday.

Anyhow, if you don't believe that we have a good school, write any of the above, and then don't come.

REQUIREMENTS FOR GRADUATION

Degrees—Third and thirty-second are offered at West Virginia. Don't take the word offered too literally, because it is nothing more than a blind. You have to work, brother, you have to work. Maybe we should say students offer to get the degrees. Anyway, get one if you can.

FOR THE THIRD DEGREE:

1. Sanskirt	10 hours
2. Agriculture (Milking, Horse-shoeing, Cow Valet, Pilot)	16 hours
3. Domestic languages (Profane, Slang, English)	14 hours
4. Necking (Petting, Parking, Movie-going)	60 hours
5. Academic Work	1 hour

FOR THE THIRTY-SECOND DEGREE:

No one has ever got this far, so we don't know yet what to ask them to do. However, we feel sure that double the above will be nearly O. K., with the exception of the academic work, and we will cut that in half.

MAJORS AND MINORS:

Students must pick a major and two minors from the following group of subjects:

Sleeping	Eating
Sleeping	Eating
Sleeping	Eating
Sleeping	Eating
Sleeping	Eating
Sleeping	Eating

Classes will take care of the sleeping, and Comuntzis will be glad to take care of the eating.

STUDENT ACTIVITIES

Athletics—It is the purpose of the work in Physical Education to aid the students in school to keep their bodies in the best possible physical condition. To this end we have hired a competent director, who takes the roll wunct a week, and flunks you if you have pneumonia and can't come. We have a darn good baseball team, but they can't or won't get any easy games, and besides the Director says that Pittsburgh has a team and that isn't so far away as to make you go without seeing a big league game every once in a while.

We are particularly proud of our Field House on account of the number of Dumbells that hang out there. It is very well equipped, with a fine large swimming pool in the basement (ask Hirsohn) only you must watch diving when there isn't any water in the pool.

Student Council—Another good joke. They really tried their best to do something, but so far the powers that be have done a lot of vetoing. However, the spring elections surely furnish a subject for fights and hard feeling. The Main purpose so far has been to wash dishes, and it seems funny that no one ever bothers to interfere with that phase in the least.

Literary Societies—Relics of the past! A few faithfuls still get to meetings once in a while, but beyond that we dare not say. Every student is urged not to become a member because you are sure to get hooked for a dollar or so in the spring for your picture in the Muddycola. Either that, or you will get finned for not being on the program.

Collitch Volunteer Orchestra and Choir and Glee Club—These organizations had a concert in Pisgee this past winter, and it was very well attended, especially by the student body. The Pisgee University Officials report few casulties from the visitation although some of their fraternities reported rituals missing.

Fraternities—The following fraternities are represented at West "Virginia Collitch: Beta Alpha Tau, Sigma Sigma Sigma Sigma and Sigma and ten or twelve others of practically the same names. There are a number of rules governing these clubs which are listed below:

1. All persons asking to join fraternities must be in Collitch.

2. Fraternities will supply their own weapons and ammunition for all Campus Fights.

3. Before being initiated all children must have their A. B. degrees.

4. After 1934 freshmen will not be permitted to room in the various houses, because we would not need the new dormitories if they did.

Taking it all in all, fraternities are a good thing, because they make one keep one's head up, for fear of being stabbed in the back.

R. O. T. C. Collitch Band—This competent group is under the able direction of the best band master ever to come out of West Virginia, he told me so himself. The main purpose of this band is to get the players out of military; they can't do a proper squads right so they put them in the band, whether they can play or not doesn't make any difference. The Band furnishes noise at all the football games in this district of the country providing it is there. If you already know how to play an instrument, you will be able to still play one after you have been in the band for a few years.

Fi Batar Cappar—This is not, as the name implies, an organization based on the general plan of the Ku Klux Klan. Really, Oswald, it is simply the name for the group of students who are taking History and who want to mask their handshaking. Clever don't you think? It, I mean the organization, is under the direction of the head of the department of profane languages, who not only picks the activities but also the brand of whiskey. Very good, if you want to pass Ennis's History courses.

French Club—Some such an organization as the one above but not nearly so open. For instance, you only need to come to the meetings to belong, and really the handshaking is very open. Anyway, you are sure to get something to eat if you attend them meetings.
